A Whole Block in Baltimore Destroyed—Th

Rarly Sunday morning fire broke out in the toy warehouse of E. A. Prior & Co., on alon of fireworks soon afterwards wrocked the building and spread the fire to the drug house of J. H. Winkelman & Co. and the hat house of M. S. Levy & Co. Scarcely house of J. H. Wickelman & Co. and the hat house of M. S. Levy & Co. Scarcely had the firemen entered the drug house when another terrific explosion caused that building to collapse and spread the fiames throughout the entire block running from Lombard to Prest street. The firms entirely burned out besides Prior & Co. Winkelman & Co. and M. S. Levy & Sons, are: Wylle, Brustar & Co., wholesaile dealers in shoes; Tabb Brothers & Dimmock, hardware; H. B. King & Sons, hardware; Dobler, Mudge & Co., paints and glass. The Maternite building on Lombard street was damaged. The total loss is estimated at $1,000,000; it is nearly or quite covered by insurance.

The names of the men known to have been buried in the ruins are George Bow.ers, Thomas Wagner, John A. Combs and Perry Ryan, of No. 2 Hook and Ladder company, and Harry Walker, Geo. Kering and Hiram McAfes, of No. 7 Engine company. It is certain that these men have lost their lives, and it may be that others were with them when the crash came.

The Biting Tongue.

Slander attacks us from behind. The bite is rarely felt unless it is malignant and persistent. Disease, too, often steals upon us through a vital channel. The air we breathe affects the lungs—if it be malarious it enters the blood, if it change too quickly in the temerature it produces disease of the throat, &c. o prevent or to remedy the various forms of mittent fever, dumb ague, ague cake or bilious remittent, it is and ever has proved to be an effective and thorough remedy—one which does not only ameliorate the symptoms of the maladies of this type, but eradicates their cause. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheumatism, bladder and kidney troubles are among the humanity afflicting troubles which it promptly relieves and ultimately removes.
